

Camp War Eagle 2022

CONFIRMATION PACKET

Virtual Orientation

STUDENTS: Please check your Auburn University email account regularly for important information. You will get an email from the First Year Experience Office regarding Camp War Eagle (CWE) a few days before your session with reminders, updates, and information about how to access your session via Zoom.

SESSION ASSIGNMENT: Please note the date of your session assignment as well as the date of your academic advising and course registration by visiting fye.auburn.edu/cwe/dates. Unless it is an emergency, PLEASE DO NOT REQUEST A CHANGE. Should you be unable to attend CWE, please inform us immediately, but be aware that all CWE CHARGES WILL STILL APPLY. All questions concerning CWE should be directed to fyedesk@auburn.edu.

NEW STUDENT MODULES: One component of orientation is optional new student modules found at auburn.instructure.com. Please note that the Connecting the Creed module is required. It is strongly encouraged that you review these modules prior to your CWE session and academic advising.

PARTICIPATION: You are required to participate in all of your CWE session from 9:00 am– 5:00 pm CT. Breaks will be provided throughout the day. If you do not participate in the required Tiger Talks and informational sessions, you will not be cleared to register for classes. You can see more information at auburn.edu/cwe. Please note that Auburn University is in the Central Time Zone.

REQUEST FOR SPECIAL ASSISTANCE: If you need to request any special accommodations which you did not include when you registered, please let us know as soon as possible, but at least one week before your CWE session. We will be happy to assist you. This includes all access and communication needs. Please also inform the Office of Accessibility at (334) 844-2096.

FAMILY AND GUESTS: If your parent or other family member is registered to participate in CWE with you, they will also receive an email about a week before your session with details and schedule information. Encourage them to review the CWE schedule options in advance. This program will run from approximately 12 – 5 pm CT. There will be a presentation specifically for them called UNIV 101 for Families as well as a small group presentation. They will also have the opportunity to join you during the breakout sessions by campus departments. If you would like to register any additional guests or family members, please contact our office at fyedesk@auburn.edu or (334)844-4501.

DECLARATION OF MAJOR: You are assigned to a particular school or college (Engineering, Business, etc.) based on what you stated on your application for admission. If you need to change your major, please do it as soon as possible through the admitted student portal at apply.auburn.edu/status. If you change your major, we recommend that you review the module for your new college.

TIGER CARD PHOTO UPLOAD: Tiger Card is the required Auburn University ID card. Utilize the self-upload photo option at aub.ie/photoupload to submit an acceptable photo before you arrive in the fall. Please see the Tiger Card details on page 6 in this packet for more information.

AP and IB: Scores on Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate exams should be sent directly to Auburn as soon as possible. AP scores must be sent electronically via College Board at collegeboard.org. The Auburn University code is 1005. IB transcripts can be ordered at ibo.org.

AU ALERT AND EMERGENCY CONTACTS: Before CWE, you should register your cell phone number in AU ALERT, Auburn's emergency notification system, and your emergency contacts, who Auburn will notify if you're involved in an emergency. Use the My Contacts and AU ALERT links on the My Campus page in AU Access.

MEDICAL DOCUMENTATION: Students must complete the required Medical Information Form via Clearwave VacTrak. You will set up your account with Clearwave VacTrak through a unique weblink sent to your Auburn email account. More information about the form is available at auburn.edu/medical. If you have any questions concerning the form, please call the Auburn University Medical Clinic at (334) 844-4416.

AU PHARMACY: The AU Pharmacy is located inside the AU Medical Clinic. If you want to transfer your prescriptions to the AU Pharmacy or think you may fill prescriptions here in the future, please fill out the online form at pharmacy.auburn.edu. The pharmacy accepts most major insurances and other forms of payment, including billing the student account. Please note the pharmacy and the Medical Clinic are separate entities and require separate new patient forms.

Please note that Auburn University is in the Central Time Zone.

WELCOME TO CAMP WAR EAGLE!

In this packet, you will find details about your session, campus resources, and more. Keep this information and have it with you for your CWE.

Memorize the username and password for your AU Access account. AU Access is your main portal for a variety of services including registering for classes, viewing and paying your eBill, and registering your vehicle for on-campus parking later this summer.

For your virtual CWE session, please be sure that you have reliable internet service and a device that will allow you to participate fully in your entire session. That includes being able to chat via Zoom, show your video when needed, and to communicate free of distractions. It is recommended that you do not use Zoom through your cellphone due to the length of sessions and engagement needed.

Academic Advising & Course Registration

Following your CWE session, you will participate in a virtual meeting with an academic advisor from your college and register for your first semester of classes. Watch for communication from your college regarding your academic advising session as times will vary on the Monday after your CWE. This communication will be sent to your Auburn email.

To prepare for your academic advising and course registration:

- Review the New Student Modules via Canvas
- Collect AP/IB scores and your high school transcripts
- Take Foreign Language Placement Test (if needed)
- Allocate time for your virtual course registration – 10 am - 2 pm CT Friday after your CWE session

What to Expect

CWE Session (Friday) - Students will take part in both large and small group presentations about campus resources. Small group sessions will be led by a CWE Counselor and will include other new students. Students are required to participate from 9 am - 5 pm CT, and breaks will be provided throughout the day. Guests are invited to participate in our family program which includes a small group presentation and information from Parent & Family Programs. Students and guests will be able to attend breakout sessions together in the afternoon.

Academic Advising (Monday) - Students will participate in a virtual academic advising session with their college. Students and guests may be together during a portion of academic advising. More details including how to access your virtual advising will be provided by your college.

Course Registration (next Friday) - Students will register for classes virtually at 10 am CT on the Friday following their academic advising. Registration is available until 2 pm CT that day.

After CWE

- Register your vehicle for parking in mid-July
- Register for the football ticket lottery
- Connect with your roommate(s) to plan packing and housing needs for the fall
- Stay in touch with your Camp Counselor and CWE Group!

First Year Seminars & Learning Communities

Limited Availability! Visit auburn.edu/fys to apply.

Application Closes Wednesday, May 11 at 5 pm.

Why take an FYS?

First Year Seminars (FYS) help you make a smooth and successful transition to college life. All FYS courses provide assistance with academic skill development, adjustment to college life, and detailed information on and experience with the functions, support services, and resources at Auburn.

Most sections of FYS courses are limited to 20 students, which gives you the opportunity to get to know your instructor and fellow students, participate in lively discussions and activities, and grow even closer to your new Auburn family.

Start Strong. Finish Ahead.

Benefits:

- Build connections to Auburn
- Adapt academic skills to college
- Learn in a small class with a supportive instructor
- Engage in hands-on, interactive activities

Available to ALL First Year Students

UNIV1050: Success Strategies

Success Strategies is a one-credit hour graded course that helps you fine-tune your academic and personal skills. You will learn about note-taking and study strategies; reading, writing, and presentation skills; memory and test-taking tips; and career opportunities. You will also explore the available (and free!) academic and personal resources available to you on campus.

How to Register:

You can add this course when you register for your other classes. UNIV1050: Success Strategies is listed under "University Courses - UNIV" in AU Access.

Available to Themed FYS and Learning Community Students

UNIV1100: First Year Seminar (topics vary)

The First Year Seminar is a one- or two-credit hour graded course that focuses primarily on topics surrounding the theme of the Learning Community. Special emphasis will be placed on the importance of relating the class theme to academic skills necessary for success.

UNIV1150: Special Topics with Learning Strategies (topics vary)

Special Topics with Learning Strategies is a one- or two-credit hour graded course that blends exploring the topics surrounding the theme of your Learning Community with learning about many of the academic topics taught in UNIV1050: Success Strategies.
